Why ESG is Critical for Indian Banks/Financial Institutions?

FINANCIAL AND STRATEGIC BENEFITS FOR BANKS/FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

- Access to Green Capital: ESG-compliant banks attract funds from global investors & sustainability-linked finance institutions.
- Risk Mitigation: Managing environmental & social risks reduces long-term exposure to financial instability.
- Competitive Advantage: ESG-aligned financial institutions have stronger reputation & attract conscious investors & customers.
- Improved Credit Ratings: Banks with strong ESG performance benefit from enhanced ratings & lower funding costs.

REGULATORY LANDSCAPE & COMPLIANCE REQUIREMENTS

RBI & SEBI Directives

Indian regulators are increasingly mandating ESG compliance for banks and listed companies.

Mandatory ESG Reporting

Banks are required to disclose ESG risks and sustainability strategies to attract investors and comply with regulations.

Sustainable Finance Trends

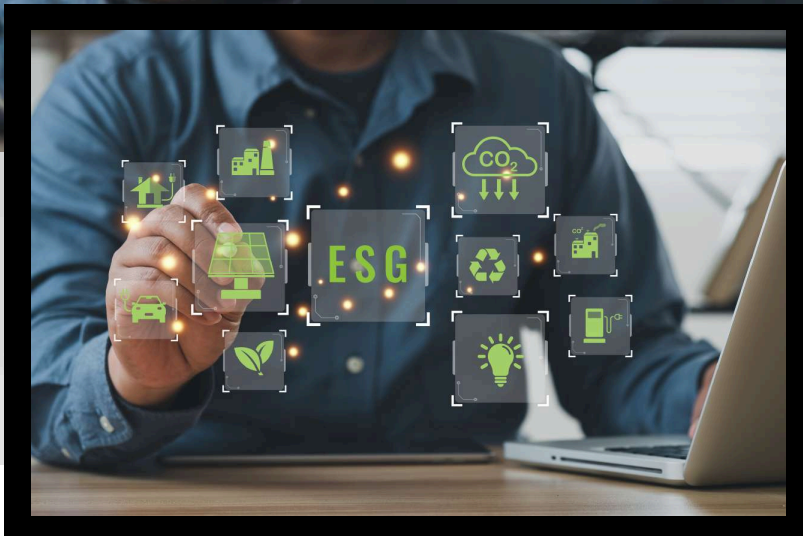

The Government of India & global financial institutions are prioritising green lending & sustainable finance mechanisms.

International ESG Standards

TCFD, GRI 4.0, and SASB frameworks are influencing India's banking sector & financial institutions. Compliance to World Bank (ESS 1-10), International Finance Corporation (PS:1 to 8), Asian Development Bank - SPS, KfW, Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank
